

I am opposed to the Broad Band over Power Line proposal. I have Amateur Radio Operators in Europe and Japan (where this type of internet and data transfer service has already been implemented) comment that it caused very excessive interference to two way radio communications. Please don't permit one communications service to destroy another.

Thanks for your time.

Mike Godwin
KC0QAG